JUNE 2007 BLUES-LETTER

Hey all you blues fans--

This just in-- the Bluesletter is late! :-D

Oh, well... we know you're looking for Sumpin' Doo this weekend, and Uncle Bo's has got 'em. These Iowa Blues Hall of Fame members will be rockin' the Bo's stage both Friday and Saturday, so drop by for the party.

Next weekend is a special one-- Heather Thornton will be bringing her beautiful voice and talented band-- they do a little something for everyone, from jazz and blues to rock and R&B. Be here for her Bo's debut on Friday, June 22!

Saturday, June 23 Tab Benoit will be bringing his Louisiana blues / pop / soul favorites straight from the bayou back to T-Town. This will be one heck of a concert you will just have to see to believe!

And on the last weekend of the month, another Bo's debut, Friday June 29, we are proud to welcome the talented singer, songwriter and guitarist Mem Shannon. His masterful guitar style skillfully combines funk, jazz and rock-n-roll. It's another must-see!

Well, this was a quickie this time around, but we are packing a lot of great sounds into what's left of June. Hope you're enjoying the month, and stay tuned to our website for upcoming shows, including some great last-minute free Stuck In Kansas Tour appearances. And as always, remember, if you can't be good... be careful!

Don't forget, Suki is counting on you to get that icebox calendar slapped on the 'fridge.

Need to removed from this list? :-/
