

FOR ALL
DTI Members and their Guests!

KTWU FACTS

KTWU is a non-commercial, public television station authorized by the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D.C. and licensed to Washburn University of Topeka. KTWU commenced telecasting on October 21, 1965 as the first public television station in Kansas.

RSVP

You are invited to our DOWNTOWN AFTER HOURS

ktwu.washburn.edu

Great Television and More!

Fall Program Preview Party

at 414 E 2nd Street in Warehouse 414

across from Hallmark

Thursday, August 9, 2007

4:30-6:30 p.m.

KTWU invites DTI members and their guests to preview and celebrate their fabulous fall shedule at one of downtown Topeka's unique retail locations, Warehouse 414.

KTWU broadcasts 24 hours per day. The programming is for both children and adults, with subjects related to education, cultural enrichment, public affairs and entertainment. KTWU offers televised courses for college credit as part of the program service in conjunction with Washburn University.

Activities

Meet and Mingle 4:30-5:30 p.m.

After Hours Presentation 5:30-5:45 p.m.

Door Prize Drawing

Beverages and hors d'oeuvres

Look at these fabulous prizes!

★ There will be a free DVD for everyone attending along with other great KTWU and Warehouse 414 door prize.

THE WAR

PBS is airing the new Ken Burns documentary series, THE WAR, in September 2007. The seven-part documentary series, directed and produced by Ken Burns and Lynn Novick, explores the history and horror of the Second World War from an American perspective by following the fortunes of so-called ordinary men and women who get caught up in the greatest cataclysm in human history.

Please let us know that you are coming by calling 234-9336, faxing to 234-4448, or e-mailing pat_dti@sbcglobal.net.

Feel free to bring a friend!

Name _____

Business _____

Number of Guests _____

Guest's name _____